

Associate Member Application

Requirements: Associate Membership of Community Papers of New England is available to subsidiary companies offering services to free paper publishers and their companies and employees.

Benefits: Associate Members of the Community Papers of New England are invited to participate fully in nearly all activities of the Association.

Benefits Include: ❖ Booth Space at Conferences

❖ Registration at Conferences

❖ Free Subscription to the Newsletter

❖ Reduced Advertising Rates in the Newsletter

❖ Free Line Listing in the Newsletter and Web Site

❖ Access to complete mailing list of CPNE Membership

❖ Participation in all instructional seminars & social functions at conference

❖ Designated time on conference agenda to address members

❖ Advance Information on all conference and other activities.

❖ One Associate Member will hold a non-voting seat on the CPNE Board.

Application: I/We, having examined the CPNE Associate Membership benefits and requirements, hereby make application for associate membership in the Community Papers of New England and submit the following information in support of said application, together with payment of dues.

Firm Name _____

Street Address _____

Mailing Address _____

Phone _____ Fax _____

Contact Person _____ E-Mail _____

Website: _____

Product or Service You Provide _____

Signature _____ Date _____

(Must be signed by president or principal officer)

Please provide a brief description of your company for the website and newsletter listings.

Please make check for $200.00 payable to CPNE and mail with signed application to:
CPNE Office. P.O. Box 28, Willimantic, CT 06226